

IMPACT IN OUR COMMUNITY

COLLABORATIVE

Powerful. Beautiful. Deeply emotional. Thought provoking.
These are the comments heard in the galleries showcasing David Ramey: Gainsboro Road and Beyond.

Organized by and on view at both the Harrison Museum of African American Culture and the Taubman Museum of Art through March 31, this special show features 200 drawings and 150 handwritten stories by late Roanoke artist David Ramey, Sr., chronicling the artist's youthful memories of his beloved Henry Street, Gainsboro, and Northeast prior to the impacts of national urban renewal programs. The exhibition is free and welcoming to all at both museums.

“Frame after frame — and the accompanying documents — captured with amazing detail Ramey’s vision of this community in which he lived. Ramey’s Gainsborough exhibit is an experience one must truly see to believe.”

S. Rotan Hale,
The Roanoke Tribune

VISIONARY

The largest and most comprehensive exhibition of contemporary Romanian artwork ever shown in the United States, Looking Anew and Beyond: Contemporary Romanian Art from the Collection of the Arthur Taubman Trust featured dozens of works by some of the most prominent artists currently living and working today.

Co-curated by Ambassador Nicholas F. Taubman and Eugenia L. Taubman, it was their vision to connect Romanian art to the western world. The Taubman Museum of Art was the ONLY museum in the world to share this collection in its entirety.

“The [exhibit] introduces Roanoke and wider audiences to work from some of the most respected, interesting, and intellectually stimulating Romanian artists practicing today...”

Jane Neal,
Guest Curator

COMMUNITY

Artreach

100,000+ Arts Kits

Guided activity sheets and art supplies are creatively bundled and distributed to needful families served through Feeding Southwest Virginia in more than a dozen localities, in addition to those served by the Roanoke Rescue Mission.

“The beautiful tiles have served as a way to motivate children to get out of their rooms and to walk around the unit.

We often search for certain elements or play I Spy using the images on the tiles...”
