

FRIDAY, MARCH 3

Interactive Activities at Pop-up Booths

Organization

Learn More!

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Artemis Journal

Artemis Journal is an award-winning journal representing more than 2,000 artists and writers - come meet some of them and hear some terrific poetry!

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Local Colors

Discover more about the many different cultures living right here in southwest Virginia!

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Mill Mountain Theatre

Get hands-on with theatre-themed crafts and activities and pick up some cool freebie promo materials for MMT's current and upcoming educational programming and performances.

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Roanoke Arts Commission

The arts connect Roanoke, and in the Year of the Artist, the community is how art can help make Roanoke healthier, safer, more welcoming and just. Get creative with hands-on projects that inspire, educate, challenge, and surprise.

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Roanoke Cultural Endowment

Stop by and give the big wheel a spin! You will get to answer arts and culture trivia or questions about your involvement with the arts ... it all depends on where the wheel lands.

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Roanoke Public Libraries

Build a Roanoke "Franken-Book" with the Roanoke Public Library!

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Salem Museum

Join us as we bring history to life and explore Roanoke and Salem's past! Interact with artifacts from the region's history, and hear stories about local places and people.

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Virginia Children's Theatre

Learn more about Virginia Children's Theatre, get a sneak peek at their 2023 Professional Mainstage Season, and create some fun theatre-themed art!

5:30 - 8:30 pm

Virginia Museum of Transportation

Planes, trains, automobiles, even rockets!
Explore transportation with VMT!

Talks and Pop-up Performances

Organization

Learn More!

5:30 - 6:30 pm

Grandin Theatre Film Lab

The Grandin Theatre Film Lab presents short films created by student filmmakers in the Roanoke Valley. Come see the next generation of cinematic storytellers!

6:30 - 7 pm

Southwest Virginia Ballet

Enjoy a performance from some of Southwest Virginia's most talented youth ballet dancers!

6 - 7 pm

Meet-and-Greet with Artist Eva Rocha in the Galleries

Artist Eva Rocha will be in the galleries to discuss her new exhibition, HAVE YOU SEEN The Dark Parrot?

7 - 8 pm

Eva Rocha: Artist Talk

Get an insider's view into the inspiration and process from the artist herself with this riveting talk.

8 - 8:30 pm

Soul Sessions Spoken Word Poetry

Feed your mind and soul with spoken word poetry from some of our region's most talented poets!

SATURDAY, MARCH 4

Interactive Activities at Pop-up Booths	Organization	Learn More!
10 am - 1 pm	Mill Mountain Theatre	Get hands-on with theatre-themed crafts and activities and pick up some cool freebie promo materials for MMT's current and upcoming educational programming and performances.
10 am - 1 pm	Virginia Children's Theatre	Learn more about Virginia Children's Theatre, get a sneak peek at their 2023 Professional Mainstage Season, and create some fun theatre-themed art!
10 am - 4 pm	Artemis Journal	Artemis Journal is an award-winning journal representing more than 2,000 artists and writers - come meet some of them and hear some terrific poetry!
10 am - 4 pm	Roanoke Arts Commission	The arts connect Roanoke, and in the Year of the Artist, the community is how art can help make Roanoke healthier, safer, more welcoming and just. Get creative with hands-on projects that inspire, educate, challenge, and surprise.
10 am - 4 pm	Roanoke Cultural Endowment	Stop by and give the big wheel a spin! You will get to answer arts and culture trivia or questions about your involvement with the arts .... it all depends on where the wheel lands.
10 am - 4 pm	Roanoke Valley Sister Cities	Check out the Young Artists Showcase and international art connections with Roanoke Valley Sister Cities!
10 am - 4 pm	Salem Museum	Join us as we bring history to life and explore Roanoke and Salem's past! Interact with artifacts from the region's history, and hear stories about local places and people.
10 am - 4 pm	Southwest Virginia Ballet	Southwest Virginia Ballet strives to bring excellence in pre-professional dance experiences to the youth of our community - learn more about instructional and performance opportunities, and meet some of their dancers!
1 - 4 pm	Local Colors	Discover more about the many different cultures living right here in southwest Virginia!
1 - 4 pm	Mill Mountain Zoo	Meet and learn about some of Mill Mountain Zoo's Educational Animal Ambassadors! The Animal Ambassadors teach people of all ages about animal habitats, conservation, diets, and adaptations.
1 - 4 pm	Roanoke Public Libraries	Build a Roanoke "Franken-Book" with the Roanoke Public Library!
Talks and Pop-up Performances	Organization	Learn More!
10:30 - 11 am	Roanoke Ballet Theater	Experience the beauty and grace of Roanoke Ballet Theatre as they offer a pop-up performance featuring original choreography.
11 - 11:30 am	Virginia Children's Theatre	Get a "sneak peek" at a Professional Mainstage Season performance!
11:30 am - 12 pm	Roanoke Valley Children's Choir	The Roanoke Valley Children's Choir will perform selections from their upcoming Spring Concert - classical, multicultural, and inspirational.
12 - 12:30 pm	Southwest Virginia Ballet	Enjoy a performance from some of Southwest Virginia's most talented youth ballet dancers!
12:30 - 1 pm	Roanoke Symphony	Unleashing the power of music...for health! Wellness Arts is RSO's innovative program serving elderly adults suffering from Alzheimer's and dementia.
1 - 2 pm	The Spot on Kirk	Hear from some of the talented musicians that play at Spot on Kirk, an intimate music venue and gathering place here in Roanoke.
2 - 2:30 pm	Opera Roanoke	Opera Roanoke's Young Artists will share songs from the operas they love most.
2:30 - 3 pm	Fashionista Roanoke	Take in the hottest new fashions with this "runway" inspired performance with Fashionista Roanoke!
3 - 3:30 pm	Roanoke Baroque	Roanoke Baroque will share musical selections from the baroque period using period instruments such as a harpsichord.
3:30 - 4 pm	Artemis Journal + Southwest Virginia Ballet	Watch a beautiful dance performance inspired by poetry!

SUNDAY, MARCH 5

Interactive Activities at Pop-up Booths

Organization

Learn More!

1 - 4 pm

Artemis Journal

Artemis Journal is an award-winning journal representing more than 2,000 artists and writers - come meet some of them and hear some terrific poetry!

1 - 4 pm

Mill Mountain Theatre

Get hands-on with theatre-themed crafts and activities and pick up some cool freebie promo materials for MMT's current and upcoming educational programming and performances.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Arts Commission

The arts connect Roanoke, and in the Year of the Artist, the community is how art can help make Roanoke healthier, safer, more welcoming and just. Get creative with hands-on projects that inspire, educate, challenge, and surprise.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Cultural Endowment

Stop by and give the big wheel a spin! You will get to answer arts and culture trivia or questions about your involvement with the arts .... it all depends on where the wheel lands.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Valley Sister Cities

Check out the Young Artists Showcase and international art connections with Roanoke Valley Sister Cities!

1 - 4 pm

Salem Museum

Join us as we bring history to life and explore Roanoke and Salem's past! Interact with artifacts from the region's history, and hear stories about local places and people.

Talks and Pop-up Performances

Organization

Learn More!

1 - 4 pm

Caricature Artist Kyle Edgell

Come meet artist Kyle Edgell, who will create a fun caricature of you in less than two minutes!

1:30 - 3:30 pm

Miss Kitty's Society for Wayward Cosmonauts Stilt Walking

Come discover the magic of stilt walking with Miss Kitty's Society for Wayward Cosmonauts!

2 - 3 pm

Conversation with the Collector, Curator + Artists

Get a true insider's view into the Taubman's newest exhibition, Positive Fragmentation: From the Collections of Jordan D. Schnitzer and His Family Foundation. Renowned collector Jordan D. Schnitzer will be on hand to discuss his impressive collection with Dr. Virginia Treanor, Senior Curator for the National Museum of Women in the Arts, along with exhibiting artists Nicola López and Judy Pfaff. Registration highly encouraged for this conversation. Register at TaubmanMuseum.org