

SUNDAY, MARCH 5

Interactive Activities at Pop-up Booths

Organization

Learn More!

1 - 4 pm

Artemis Journal

Artemis Journal is an award-winning journal representing more than 2,000 artists and writers - come meet some of them and hear some terrific poetry!

1 - 4 pm

Mill Mountain Theatre

Get hands-on with theatre-themed crafts and activities and pick up some cool freebie promo materials for MMT's current and upcoming educational programming and performances.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Arts Commission

The arts connect Roanoke, and in the Year of the Artist, the community is how art can help make Roanoke healthier, safer, more welcoming and just. Get creative with hands-on projects that inspire, educate, challenge, and surprise.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Cultural Endowment

Stop by and give the big wheel a spin! You will get to answer arts and culture trivia or questions about your involvement with the arts .... it all depends on where the wheel lands.

1 - 4 pm

Roanoke Valley Sister Cities

Check out the Young Artists Showcase and international art connections with Roanoke Valley Sister Cities!

1 - 4 pm

Salem Museum

Join us as we bring history to life and explore Roanoke and Salem's past! Interact with artifacts from the region's history, and hear stories about local places and people.

Talks and Pop-up Performances

Organization

Learn More!

1 - 4 pm

Caricature Artist Kyle Edgell

Come meet artist Kyle Edgell, who will create a fun caricature of you in less than two minutes!

1:30 - 3:30 pm

Miss Kitty's Society for
Wayward Cosmonauts
Stilt Walking

Come discover the magic of stilt walking with Miss Kitty's Society for Wayward Cosmonauts!

2 - 3 pm

Conversation with the Collector, Curator + Artists

Get a true insider's view into the Taubman's newest exhibition, Positive Fragmentation: From the Collections of Jordan D. Schnitzer and His Family Foundation. Renowned collector Jordan D. Schnitzer will be on hand to discuss his impressive collection with Dr. Virginia Treanor, Senior Curator for the National Museum of Women in the Arts, along with exhibiting artists Nicola López and Judy Pfaff. Registration highly encouraged for this conversation. Register at TaubmanMuseum.org